Product Description

Product Description:

Food Waste Disposer is an innovative machine that transforms kitchen waste into fertilizer within 4 - 8 hours. With a one-button start, it can automatically adjust the working time based on the water content of the waste. This not only enhances convenience but also reduces the time spent on kitchen cleaning and contributes to environmental protection.

The machine operates in three steps. Firstly, it dries the waste. In this initial stage, high temperature is employed to remove nearly all the moisture from the waste. Secondly, the grinding process takes place. The blades inside the bucket quickly grind the waste, converting it into fertilizer. Finally, the machine cools down the temperature of the bucket, allowing you to take the bucket out immediately after the process is completed.
